

Biography

Paul P. Bazylak

Senior Account Executive, Visa Inc. – Emerging Acceptance

Paul Bazylak is currently responsible for marketing Visa products to Federal, State and Local Governments and Education. Paul also has responsibility for monitoring compliance for the Visa Tax Program, Service Fee Program and pursuing new Business Development opportunities.

Paul joined Visa in Atlanta, GA. in 1995, and has played a key role the implementation of numerous card acceptance and commercial card programs in state and local governments and education institutions across the country. Paul also has been instrumental in the implementation of card acceptance programs in other Emerging Markets including United States Postal Service, QSRs, Small Tickets, Healthcare and BillPay. Prior to Visa, Paul spent fourteen years with Bank of America as a Senior Vice President of Sales in the Federal Government Banking Division.

Paul, a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Duquesne University and a Master of Arts in Management from the University of Pittsburgh.